RE: Indian Day School information

April 2, 2019 Update:

On March 12, 2019, Minister of Crown-Indigenous Relations (Carolyn Bennett) announced that a Settlement Agreement between Canada and class counsel was signed. The proposed settlement with Canada includes everyone who attended a Federal Indian Day School. Compensation for harms associated with attending a Federal Indian Day School ranges from $10,000 to a maximum of $200,000, depending on the severity of abuse suffered. Eligible Class Members will receive a payment reflecting the most severe harms they suffered while attending an Indian Day School, irrespective of the number of schools attended. The proposed settlement also includes a $200M Legacy Fund to support commemoration projects, health and wellness programs, as well as language and culture initiatives for communities. Information on how to make a claim for compensation will become available if the proposed settlement is approved in the months ahead.

We have a webpage designated to the Indian Day School Class Action –

April 10, 2019 Update:

There is NO deadline for registration at this time but there is a deadline of May 3, 2019 to submit Support or Objection forms in regards to the terms of settlement.

Support Forms or Objection Forms can be found at:

<http://www.indiandayschools.com/en/>

<https://indiandayschools.com/en/wp-content/uploads/2019/03/Statement-of-Support.pdf>

Only use this Form if you wish to express your support for the proposed settlement

Objecting to the Settlement Agreement is not the same as Opting Out. If you object to the Settlement Agreement but do not opt-out of the action prior to the Opt Out Deadline, you will be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement. More information about Opting Out will be posted on the Day School Website on a later date.

or copies will be at the front desk.
