Subject: Invitation to First Nation Public Library Week Launch

The Chippewas of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation is cordially inviting you to the First Nation Public Library Week launch on Monday, September 30, 2019. We are very pleased to host this annual event that shines a spotlight on the First Nation public libraries in Ontario, which contribute in significant ways to vibrant, growing communities. The Kettle and Stony Point Public Library is an important part of our community, and we look forward to showcasing its many roles. We hope you are able to accept this invitation to visit our community for the ceremony officially launching the 2019 First Nation Public Library Week celebrations.

On September 30th, the ceremony will start at 12:00 p.m. at the Kettle and Stony Point Public Library which is currently located at 9111 West Ipperwash Road, Unit #5. Our community is located on the southeastern shores of Lake Huron approximately 90 kilometres northwest of London. Our website is <http://www.kettlepoint.org> where you may find detailed information. We are anticipating attendance from the Ministry of Tourism, Culture and Sport, First Nations leaders and librarians in Southwestern Ontario, the Ontario Library Association, the Southern Ontario Library Service, Ontario Library Service North, and local MPP's. The media will also be invited to attend and report on this important event promoting First Nation public libraries in Ontario.

Thank you for giving this invitation your utmost consideration. If you require additional details, please feel free to contact Beverly Bressette, Library Coordinator, at (519) 786-6903 or via email at Beverly.Bressette@kettlepoint.org. We look forward to your response in the near future.

Sincerely,

Chief Jason Henry
